Dear Patricia,

I hope this will help you as your request for family group sheets. I have tried to comply with your request.

I have many on the Powers family. But not much on John. If you need more let me know. I'll be happy to send what I have.

On Eatons of North Carolina, I wrote what I know and listed sources for you. I hope this will help you and others.

The Whit Mbl Craft is my line. I will continue to try for better material than I have at present. I'll try to get a group sheet for you.

✓ Eaton

Colonel William Eaton of Granville County, North Carolina, was the son of Colonel John Eaton, and Rebecca Cooke, of Virginia. He was Colonel of Regiment of Granville Co., in 1754. (Virginia Magazine Vol. 5 pages 71-73) This Colonel William Eaton, married Mary Browne, daughter of Captain William Browne and his wife Mary Meriwether Browne. Captain Browne was the son of Lieut Colonel Browne (Wife of Col. William Eaton in Thines' North Carolina Mills and inventories pages 171-176. The Browne Family, Virginia Magazine Vol. 3, Page 149.)

Colonel William Eaton, son of William Eaton, and his wife Mary Browne Eaton is my grandfather who took part in the American Revolution. He was born in North Carolina before 1720 and died in North Hampton, North Carolina, about 1785. His Will was signed and witnessed Jan. 19th 1785. (Will is found in Record of Mills No. 1. North Hampton Co. N. C.) His son William, and his wife died before his death. Therefore neither is mentioned in his Will. National D.A. does not accept his wife as Mary Reames or Lina. as claimed by some, but they do accept his son, William D. whose wife was Rebecca Allen. His daughter married Allen Jones, (her name was Mary.) Another son Thomas, married Rebecca Ramsey. This is the extent of my knowledge of William Eaton W.C. 1798

And when all of said parties had inherited their interests in said land the following heirs of said Chrsatien Dedeaux, by their deeds, for a valuable Consideration, Conveyed their respective interests in said land to O J. Dedeaux, the said heirs who conveyed to O J. Dedeaux being the following:

Corinne Harniss, Francis Dedeaux, Eugene Dedeaux, O. J. Curval, Theodor Dedeaux, Marguerit Lassak, Sora Dedeaux, Mary Eacine, Theodor Dedeaux, Angeline Savier, Lucian Moran, Anna Moran, Sherric Moran, Alsah Dedeaux, Reno Dedeaux, Roman Ladinier, Silvina Dedeaux, Onelia Dedeaux, Onisia Moran, Enith L Shaw, Roia Moran, Pelagie Dedeaux, Lotitia Moran, H L Day, Antigide Moran, Cherry Dedeaux, Olivia Epilo, Caroline Netto, Alfred Sellier, Denis Moran, Siggie Paroline, Rosie Curvas, Camille Moran, Louise Nicaisse, T. J. Dubuisson, Victoria Carvin, Alcide Moran, Madeline Adam, Ella Netto.

That though said Complainants are the true owners of said land, as per said deaigament above mentioned, said respondents are sitting up a right, title and interest in and to said land based, as Complainant, is informed and believes, upon the following chain of title:

The Tax Collector of Harrison County, on the 25th day of January, 1877, by deed recorded in Vol 6. p. 116-117 Record of Deeds of Harrison County, Miss., Conveyed or assumed to Convey for taxes due thereon to W D Keel the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Trac Sec 25. T. 7 S. R. 13 W. That the Tax Collector of Harrison County, on the 1st day of Jan 1877, assumed to Convey the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Trac Sec. 36 T. 7 S. R. 13 W. to the State of Mississippi for the taxes due thereon for the year 1876.

That thereafter the State of Mississippi assumed to Convey said N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Sec 36. T. 7. S. R. 13 W. to W D. Keel.

That E. R. Progg thereafter on the 21st day of July 1902 assumed to Convey the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Sec 36. T. 7. S. R. 13 W. to C M Griffin and C M Griffin on the 16th day of Sept 1908, by his deed of that date, assumed to Convey to G. N. Nicaise Jr, the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Sec 36, T. 7. S. R. 13 W.

That W D. Keel on the 10th day of June, 1909 by his deed of that date assumed to Convey to W J Keel the N<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> of Sec 25, T. 7. S. R. 13 W.

Complainants show unto the Court that though the Conveyances above made having their origin in the tax sale above mentioned, did not Convey or assume to Convey any of the Chrsatien Dedeaux-claims, but each Conveyed a specific, properly designated Governmental subdivision of land from which same could be positively and absolutely identified and which

4255 Of Dedeaux Et al - Vs - Bayou De L'Isle Lbr Co Et al

So identified on the Governmental Survey, yet the said respondents & Nicaise and Mr J Keel and the Bayou De L'Isle Lbr Co, now assume to claim all of the land embraced in the Cheralier Dedeaux Claim under said deed. And it never was intended to convey any such land to them.

Said Complainants would further show unto the Court that said deed from the Tax Collector or any deed under which respondents acquired said lands did not embrace, or assume to embrace, or was ever intended to embrace, any land in the Cheralier Dedeaux claim and therefore could form no basis upon which these respondents could claim said land, and further show unto the Court that even if said respondents rely upon said tax sale as conveying said land hereinabove described, said tax sale is totally and absolutely void because:

First; the land was not sold for taxes as provided by law; and the lands were not sold on a day provided by law; Secondly; no actual sale was ever made to the State of Mississippi; Thirdly; because the levy was in excess of that provided by law. Fourthly; because the assessment of land was not made as provided by law, and Fifth, because none of the Officers charged with said duties performed any duty in reference to the levy of taxes, assessment of lands, and selling of said lands, or any duty provided by law to bring about a lawful sale of said lands. But even had they done so, and said sale been valid, yet the Complainant would show that none of these deeds to the said respondents, and to those through whom respondents claim, ever assumed to convey any part of the land involved in this suit, yet notwithstanding this said respondents claim to own said land by virtue of said deeds. No Complainant is informed and believes, and upon such information and belief so charged.

That as to the respondent the Bayou De L'Isle Lbr Co. Complainant is unable to state by what chain of title it claims said land, but it has been informed that the Bayou De L'Isle Lbr Co. is claiming said land, and moreover the said Bayou De L'Isle Lbr Co. executed a turpentine lease to the Imperial Naval Store Co. granting to it the right to enter upon the W's of Sec 36, T 7, S. R 13 N. and under said lease has attempted to authorize the Imperial N. S. Co to box all of said land herein first above described.

That under said lease the Imperial N. S. Co. has entered upon said land, boxed, chipped, hacked and otherwise used said timber for turpentine purposes to the great damage of said Complainant and has practically ruined said timber, damaging same at least to the extent of $3000.00.

As to the Imperial N. S. Co, said Complainants show unto the Court that under said lease above mentioned, it has attempted to exercise the turpentine rights on all of said land.

That Complainants know nothing of any other claim of title which respondents have to said land, but that the claim and right set up by said respondents thrusts onto Courts a cloud, doubt and suspicion upon the title of said Complainants, preventing a safe title at its true market value, and as such should be cancelled.

Sit a spell

'I've had a lot of fun with this damn thing,' says Roy Dedeaux, designer and builder of a 23-foot rocking chair. About 1,300 board feet of lumber was used to make it. The seat is 9 feet wide and 10 feet deep.

The whole clan probably fits in Dedeaux's 23-foot rocker

■ If the Dedeaux Clan wants to sit on the porch and rock, well, they can do that in Roy Dedeaux's new rocker. But there is a slight catch — they'll need a new porch.

Dedeaux designed and built the 23-foot-tall rocking chair he hopes will be included in an upcoming edition of the Guinness Book of World Records. He also built a 20-foot-tall rocker of the same design.

There are no listings for the world's largest rocker in the current edition.

about that chair than anything else
on the Coast.*

If someone breaks his record, he said he may build a bigger one. But his sons aren't so sure.

"The whole clan can rock at one time," he told a group of Jackson women who were shopping at his furniture store on Canal Road. "There'll be more lies told about that chair than anything else

on the Coast."

Dedeaux got the idea for his ample chair about 20 years ago, but a heart attack forced him to store the lumber and postpone plans.

Ed Stewart, who spent the day with chain-saw sculptor Aurelio Castillo assembling the rocker, remembered re-igniting Dedeaux's idea.

"We were talking one day and I said, 'You ought to go on and finish that chair,'" Stewart said. "You'll probably get it in the Guinness Book of Records."

It was 20 years ago that the Dedeauxs ventured into the woods on their property to remove cypress logs that would later serve as the posts for the rocker. By hand, they removed the bark and allowed the wood to age.

The fire was rekindled last week.

Out came the lumber, the nails, the drills, the chainsaws and the basic design he uses for all his rockers — on a much larger scale, of course. He laid it all out in charcoal on the lengthy porch in front of his furniture store.

"So far, we have it balanced out and it looks good," Roy said.

Having a 23-foot rocking chair in front of his furniture store can't hurt business. Dedeaux's sons Chuck and Andy say it's picked up already.

"I didn't figure it would do what I have seen it do," Chuck said. "This morning, people on their way to work would swing into the parking lot to take a look. A couple of guys stayed about an hour sitting in their truck watching us work."

Chuck said the enormous rocker has turned into a backdrop for photo seekers.

"They all want to get their picture taken in it," he said. "They are just amazed. There were I don't know how many having their picture made today. They want to know how tall it is, how wide it is, what kind of wood it is."

The smaller chair, 20 feet tall, took less time, but the Dedeauxs may wait a while before beginning another.

"Oh, man, we about worked ourselves to death trying to get these together," Chuck said. "We've done enough for a while. We're going to just let it set for a little while. We've done enough for a while."

The size surprised everyone. "I didn't realize just how tall that chair would be," Chuck said. "It's a lot taller standing up in the air."

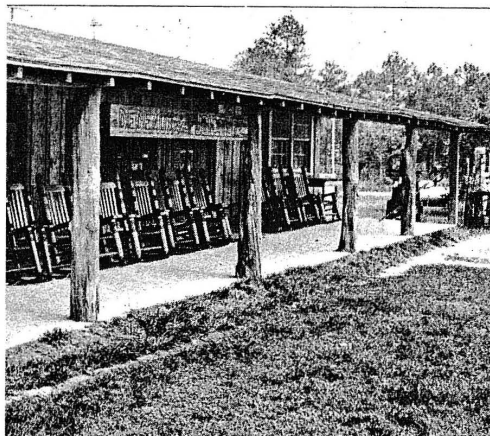

With a smile, Roy's wife HESSIE shakes her head. "He's always coming up with something," she said. "He has a creative mind. He's still sharp about things and he just thinks the factory doors can't open without him."

One chair will serve as a welcome sign at the factory on Canal Road, while the other will rest at an acre Roy owns at the intersection of Interstate 10 and Canal Road.

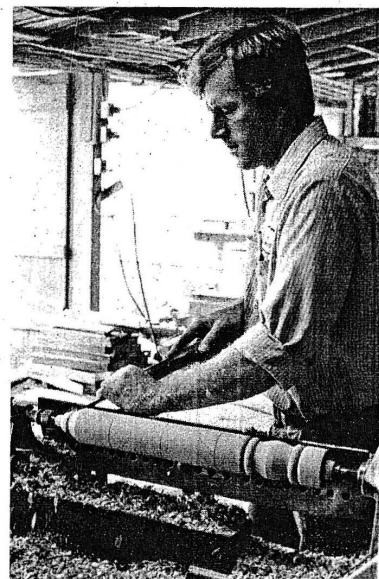

"The rocking chair is what we like to build more than anything else," Roy said. "But a chair is different than any other piece of furniture. You never get the first one to sit just right, feel right and be right. That doesn't come until number three or four."

Nonetheless, Roy is proud of his first two attempts. "I've had a lot of fun with this damn thing," he said. "And I think it's damn near perfect."

A home-grown Gulf Coast enterprise that began making huge rocking chairs a few years ago has branched into making all types of solid wood furniture for fine homes in Mississippi and across the South.

Down along the Gulf Coast, genial Roy Dedeaux and his sons, Chuck and Andy, are creating a legend in wood. From oak and other selected hardwoods, they are artfully crafting massive rockers, tables, cabinets and other sturdy creations which are destined to become collectors' items.

The rocking chairs, beds, tables and dozens of other pieces they have designed fit well into the decor of plantation homes and other styles built for comfortable Southern living.

"We'd like to see what we're making wind up as antiques," Roy Dedeaux said. "We take real pride in what we do. Our policy is to do the best job we can every time we pick up a piece of lumber."

The Dedeaux Clan Furniture Factory idea got started about 15 years ago after Roy Dedeaux made a very large rocker for one of his sons in his back yard. Many people saw it and wanted one for themselves, so what had been a back yard hobby started turning into a business. Then Chuck and Andy joined in and the firm has grown ever since. Three new employees were added recently.

"Chuck and Andy actually own it," Roy Dedeaux said. "They don't pay me so they can't fire me — this is the best arrangement for a job I've ever had."

Recently, a new 10,000 square foot building was completed near the Dedeaux home to house the workshop and a large display area for the many wood products they make.

"We use mostly oak because it's one of the best woods," Dedeaux said. "Most is Mississippi lumber, but some comes from Alabama."

According to Dedeaux, the huge

Magnolia State rocking chair and the jumbo rocker are the two leading items in sales. Large dining and kitchen tables and chairs also are in big demand. Between 35 and 40 other items are also in demand, including beds, benches, cabinets, bars, mantles, dressers, stereo cases, room dividers, roll-top desks and many more. New items are added periodically.

Making replacement bannister spindles for ante-bellum homes is another specialty of the firm. Orders have come from as far away as Memphis, Dallas and parts of Florida. "Gingerbread" or trim work is another specialty.

Recently, the firm started selling hardwood lumber and plywood such as oak, mahogany, cypress, walnut, teak and many other varieties. A planer and dry kiln were also added.

All the wooden arms, legs, table tops, and parts for rockers are made by hand. Chuck Dedeaux works at a lathe to make the pieces. Decorative cuts and beads are made in the wood as it spins on the lathe.

"We drill all the holes just a little small and air dry all the posts we use in the chairs when they have a little moisture," Chuck said. "We don't use any glue and this makes them fit tighter."

"All the years we've put chairs together, I don't think we've ever had one come apart," he said.

The rocking chairs may have backs and bottoms of wooden slats, cane, or selected cowhide. The hides are stocked in fall and winter when the hair is most colorful.

According to Chuck Dedeaux, as the volume of the firm has grown, they have worked at becoming more efficient. There are now two 12-inch planers and one 32-inch one. They have also converted to three-phase power.

A LONG LINE of the famous rockers on the

Electrical requirements of the furniture factory are supplied by Coast Electric Power Association.

Andy Dedeaux is in charge of assembling the furniture, sanding, staining and finishing it. He leaves the finish so that the good wood grain shows through.

The two most popular finishes are a provincial walnut, one which goes well with antique decor, and a walnut finish which fits well with paneling and decor in more modern homes. Some furniture is also sold unfinished.

"We also have about 20 other stains to choose from," Andy said. "Our final semi-gloss coat is intended to give each piece a scratch-resistant finish."

The Dedeaux-made furniture is sold retail at the factory. Customers come from near and far who have heard about the unique furniture or have seen items that someone else has.

Dedeaux Clan Furniture Company is located in the Orange Grove Community north of Gulfport. It is two miles north of Interstate 10 on Canal Road. A price and selection list is available and the address is Route 11, Box 370, Gulfport.

"Many of our sales today are to those young couples who have gotten married in the last five years," Roy Dedeaux said. "They say they want something they don't ever have to throw away."

There are many who buy one piece of furniture at a time, he said. This is practical, since the same styles and finishes will still be available in years to come so that they may add additional matching pieces.

Roy Dedeaux has assembled several giant logs from which he plans to build the world's largest rocking chair. It will be quite a conversation piece with rockers that are 12 feet long.
